

AUTISTIC GENDER MINORITIES SUPPORTING EACH OTHER

We are looking for a diverse group of autistic women and non-binary people who have had employment experiences, whether good or bad, to be part of the second phase of an autistic-led employment project. This project is working to develop employment resources for a website to assist autistic women and non-binary people with their unique employment needs.

GOAL

Autistic gender minorities supporting each other to achieve employment and career goals.

YOUR VOICE MATTERS

ARE YOU

A woman, non-binary person, or other gender minority, aged 18+?

Diagnosed with autism/self-identify as autistic?

Interested in exploring employment issues for autistic women/ gender minorities?

Willing to share your employment experiences?

The group will meet monthly, either virtually or in person, dependent on COVID-19 restrictions. The project will wrap-up by November 2022.

Develop your leadership skills
Be part of a group of diverse individuals
Have your voice heard
An opportunity to create change

BENEFITS

There will be an honorarium provided at the end of the project.

INTERESTED?

To apply, fill out this google form:

All submissions will be reviewed and responded to, but not all applications will be accepted.

For more information, contact Jackie Ryan at jryan@centreforautism.ab.ca

AUTGEMS IS SUPPORTED BY:
centre for autism services
ALBERTA

